

The Dublin Process: Enhancing CAADP and CGIAR Alignment and Partnerships

Sunday, October 28, 2012
Punta del Este Conference Room A, Conrad Hotel
GCARD2 Pre-Meetings

Objective: To review outcomes and recommendations from Dublin II (held September 17-19) focused on further alignment and collaboration between CAADP-CGIAR investment plans and research agendas – and commit to a future work program

9:00 An African Agricultural Science Agenda: Why it is needed and how we will work together to deliver (Monty Jones and David Radcliffe)

9:30 The Dublin Process: Background and agreements to date (David Nielson, co-chair of the CAADP-CGIAR Steering Committee)

10:00 Discussion and Q&A

10:30 Coffee Break

11:15 Horn of Africa Technical Consortium: An example of longer-term, multi-partner engagement for CAADP and CGIAR (Jimmy Smith)

11:30 Design and use of new tools for mapping and alignment (Stanley Wood)

12:00 How will CAADP carry the Dublin Process forward (Harold Roy-Macauley)

12:15 How will CGIAR carry the Dublin Process forward (Karen Brooks)

12:30 Alignment of investments and programs for South-South and North-South partnerships within the CAADP-CGIAR activities (Q&A with panelists)

1:00 Adjourn